THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 18.

A. & W. R. B. Suir -In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on Tuesday, the case of the District of Columbia et al. vs. The Alexandria and Washington Railroad Co. et al. came up. The argument in this case was begun by Mr. Stanton. The bill of complaint sets forth, among other things, that the corporation of Washington guaranteed payment of certain bonds issued by the Alexandris and Washington Railroad Company to the amount of $60,000, and the company, to indemnify the city and to secure the holders of the bonds, executed a deed of trust, on April 19, 1855, to Joseph H. and A. Thomas Bradley, conveying to them, as trustees, all the property of the company on both sides of the Potomac river. The company failed to pay either the principal or interest of the bonds. and the corporation of Washington took up the bonds to the amount of $45,500, which drew interest from July 1, 1857. During the war certain persons associated themselves under the style of the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad Company, took possession of the railroad under an alleged pretended purchase of the rights and franchises of the Alexandria and Washington Company, and the new company assumed to pay off the obligations of the old company. In 1865, Shoe maker and Adams Express Company acquired control of the W., A. & G. Co., and in February, 1866, they contracted with said W., A. & G. Co., in consideration of having exclusive use of the railroad, to pay off, among other trust to the Bradleys. But by judicial action of the courts of Virginia, it became manifest that the W., A. and G. Co. was fictitious, fraudulent, and unlawfully organized; and thereupon Shocmaker and the express company abandoncd the W., A. and G. Co., and obtained con-trol of the A. and W. Co., and became bound by written contract to pay all liabilities incurred under said deed of trust to the Bradleys. Although the court of last resort in Virginia uas decided the W., A. and G. Co. to be a fraudulent and unlawful organization, the A. and W. Co., under control of Shoemaker and the express company, in order to hinder the complainants from Maiming just debts and effecting sale of said railroad, made a collusive agreement with W., A. and G. Co., whereby that part of the railroad lying on Washington side of the Potomac was assigned to the W., A. and G. Co., while that part lying on the Virginia side was conceded to the A. and W. Co.; and the railroad is now being operated by the A. and W. Co., under pretended lease from the W., A. and G. Co., for that part of road on Washington side of Potomac river. The bill seeks enforcement of the agreement of Shoemaker and Adams Express Company for payment of the liabilities of the A. and W. Co., in respect of the bonds secured by the deed of trust, or in default of said payment that the railroad may be sold for satisfaction of said bonds. There is a prayer for general Among the averments of the bill is one that in July, 1863, the Bradleys, as trustees under the deed of trust to secure the bonds, were called upon by the authorities of Washington to execute said trust and sell the railroad; but eale was restrained by preliminary injunction granted and still pending in case of "W., A. and G. Co. and Alexander Hay vs. The Mayor, &c." Demurrer was interposed by defendants upon the grounds of pendeccy of equity in cause, as shown by the bill, and also the absence of any right on part of complainants to enforce the contract with the Adams Express Co. The case is not concluded.

ICE DEALERS.

Notice to Ice Consumers.

I desire to call the attention of consumers of Ice to the fact that I have on hand, and offer for sale during the coming summer, from 1000 to 1500 tons of Ice, which I will deliver to any part of the city at LOWEST POSSIBLE RATES. This Ice was collected in good condition from the Pond south of the Canal Basin; was formed entirely from rain and spring water; is free from mixture with vegetable matter; and it would be difficult to assign any reason why it should be inferior in purity to Ice gathered from the rivers of the North.

Ice cut from this Pond is now used at the resi dences of Col. C. F. Suttle and John B. Daingerfield, esq., also at the Mansion House and City Hotel, with entire satisfaction to all. In assuming to carry on more largely the business pursued in a small way for many years by my father, I respectfully ask a continuation of the patronage which he enjoyed, with such additional trade as my increased efforts may eem to merit. Proprietors of Hotels and Restaurants Con fectioners and other consumers of considerabl quantities of Ice will find my PRICES VERY

A CARD.—Circumstances rendering it desirable that I should locate in Baltimore, I have transferred my DENTAL PRACTICE in Alexandria to DR. D. N. RUST. He has been for so many years associated with me as to need no introduction or endorsement, his skill, ability and reputation for honesty and high integrity being well known. I cordially commend him to the favor of my friends and patients, as well worthy of the position to which he suc eeds, and bespeak for him the practice with which, for so JAMES B. HODGKIN.
